Bologna - at the forefront in both the world of cinema and culinary excellence. This year Il Cinema Ritrovato pairs itself with the gastronomical artisans of the city, who make their mark upon the 35th iteration of the festival with some creations especially made for the occasion.

The city's pizzerias, accepting the initiative proposed by Berberè, have collaborated on the Pizza Maggiore, inspired by the projections of the most beautiful cinema in the world... Piazza Maggiore. It fuses ingredients emblematic of our country, such as potatoes and mortadella, with the aim of creating a new local classic.

The Terzi coffee roasting company has also formulated a special blend for Il Cinema Ritrovato. A mix of arabica and robusta beans, giving hints of dried fruit, hazelnut, almond and gianduja, this blend is reminiscent of the best-loved 'caffè espresso' of the past century when cinematic art came to the fore.

An historic partner of the festival is Gelatauro, which every year offers a new Gelato Ritrovato inspired by the protagonists of Il Cinema Ritrovato. This year we will be tucking into the Aldo Fabrizi Sandwich, starring a rustic cream filling enriched with ricotta and candied orange - a tribute to the mother of the great Roman, who had a fruit and vegetable stall in that city's Campo de' Fiori.
